4TH SUNDAY OF EASTERTIDE
8th May 2022

This is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday, and is part of the continuing journey of Easter, remember that Jesus is the Good Shepherd who both gives his life for his sheep and takes it up again.

His relationship with us, after the resurrection, is closer than we can imagine: through his dying and rising, Jesus fulfils the promise he makes in today's Gospel: "I give them eternal life, and they will never be lost". This Sunday is another opportunity for us to consider the consequences of the Resurrection; how we live the Easter Story.

"I give eternal life to the sheep that belong to me"

A POPE'S EASTER REFLECTION

In presenting the mystery of the Church in our time, the Second Vatican Council gave priority to the category of "communion". In this perspective, the rich variety of gifts and ministries acquires great importance for the People of God. All the baptised are called to contribute to the work of salvation. In the Church, however, there are some vocations which are dedicated especially to the service of communion. The person primarily responsible for Catholic communion is the Pope, Successor of Peter and Bishop of Rome; with him, the Bishops, successors of the Apostles, are the custodians and teachers of unity, assisted by the priests. But consecrated persons and all of the faithful are also at the service of communion. At the heart of Church communion is the Eucharist: the different vocations draw from this supreme Sacrament the spiritual power to build constantly, in charity, the one ecclesial Body of Christ.

alleluia, alleluia

SAINT OF THE WEEK

13th May – Our Lady of Fatima

Between May 13th and October 13th, 1917, three Portuguese children - Francisco and Jacinta Marto and their cousin Lucia dos Santos - received apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria near Fatima, a city 110 miles north of Lisbon. Mary asked the children to pray the rosary for world peace, for the end of the first World War, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia. Mary gave the children three secrets. Following the deaths of Francisco and Jacinta in 1919 and 1920 respectively, Lucia revealed the first secret in 1927. It concerned devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The second secret was a vision of hell. When Lucia grew up she became a Carmelite nun and died in 2005 at the age of 97. The feast of Our Lady of Fatima was approved by the local bishop in 1930; it was added to the Church's universal calendar in 2002. The message of Fatima is simple: Pray.

Unfortunately, some people—not Sister Lucia—have distorted these revelations, making them into an apocalyptic event. Mary is perfectly honoured when people generously imitate her response “Let it be done to me as you said” (Luke 1:38).

Mary can never be seen as a rival to Jesus or to the Church's teaching authority, as exercised by the college of bishops united with the bishop of Rome.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Remember the ancient Easter Greeting
